Whenever I visit our classrooms, I love sharing stories from the Bible with the students. Today, I want to offer one of those stories to you for reflection.

The account of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the Book of Daniel (Daniel 3) stands as one of the most powerful witnesses to courage and unwavering faith in God. These three young men were living in exile under King Nebuchadnezzar, who built a great golden statue and commanded all people to bow down and worship it. For most, the choice seemed obvious: bow and live or refuse and die. But for them, the decision was even clearer—God alone is worthy of worship.

When they were threatened with the blazing furnace, their response revealed the depth of their trust: “If our God, whom we serve, can save us from the blazing furnace, He will save us... But even if He will not, know, O king, that we will not serve your god nor worship the statue you have set up.” (Dan 3:17–18)

This is one of the boldest declarations of faith in all of Scripture. Their faith did not depend on outcomes. They did not cling to God only because they expected rescue. Instead, they entrusted themselves completely to Him—whether He saved them or not. True faith does not bargain; it remains steadfast even without guarantees.

While everyone else bowed, they stood. The music played, the crowd knelt, and the pressure was overwhelming. Yet these three remained upright. History is often shaped by such people—those willing to stand alone with God rather than stand with the crowd against Him.

They knew the furnace was real. This was no metaphor, but a fiery execution. Still, their fear of losing God outweighed their fear of losing their lives. This is the essence of discipleship: better the furnace with God than the comfort of a palace without Him.

When they were cast into the fire, something remarkable happened. King Nebuchadnezzar saw a fourth figure walking among them, “like a son of the gods” (Daniel 3:25). Christians have long recognized in this moment a sign of Christ—God present with His faithful in the midst of suffering. God did not keep them from the fire, but He did not leave them in it alone.

Their witness transformed a king. The one who condemned them came to praise their God. Their courage became a form of proclamation—evangelization without words. Every age has its own “golden statues”—the things we are tempted or pressured to worship: power, popularity, comfort, approval. The story of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego challenges each of us: Will we bow to the idols of our time, or will we stand firm in faith, even at a cost?

Faithfulness may lead us into furnaces of misunderstanding, ridicule, or suffering. But this story assures us of one enduring truth: those who stand with God are never alone in the fire.

Our parish school is a gift that continues to shape hearts, minds, and souls for generations. Today, we invite you to be part of that mission in a special way.

Please join us for our Legacy Night Fundraiser on April 11th, 2026, at the Off Broadway Banquet and Conference Center in Menomonie. Hosted by our Parent Teacher Organization, the evening will begin at 5:00 p.m. and promises to be a joyful and inspiring celebration of St. Joseph School.

Legacy Night is more than an event; it is essential to sustaining our school’s mission. We are so grateful to be part of a community that believes in forming young people in faith, excellence, and service. Through your support, we continue to live out this mission, grounded in Christ, and prepared to lead lives of purpose, virtue, and serving others.

The evening will include dinner, raffles, games, silent and live auctions, and a special giving moment for an opportunity to directly support not only our current students, but also those who will walk our halls for years to come. For those unable to attend, our silent auction will also be available online, offering another meaningful way to participate.

We are still gratefully accepting donations of themed baskets and new items for our auction. If you feel called to contribute, your generosity is deeply appreciated and makes a lasting impact.

We are profoundly grateful for the continued support of our parish community. Your prayers, presence, and generosity are vital to the life of St. Joseph School.

Please consider joining us for this meaningful evening as we celebrate St. Joseph School and embrace our legacy of guiding the children who will carry its mission forward.

Tickets and other information are available on the school website <https://www.menomonicatholicschool.org/> or scan the QR code below, as well as in the office at the Parish Center.

With gratitude,
Mrs. Mary Kiefer, Principal
