MESSAGE FROM FR. MANO

Why does Fr. Mano keep insisting on the Stations of the Cross during every Lent? I can't take you all to The Holy Land, Jerusalem but I could give you that experience when you walk with me at the Stations of the Cross. Do you want to walk with me? Yes, the Stations of the Cross are a communal prayer where we make a spiritual pilgrimage to the sights of Jesus' last few hours of his life. Some believe that our Blessed Virgin Mary visited the scenes of our Lord's Passion every day that she was in Jerusalem. The Stations of the Cross allow us to do the same, to participate in his passion and death through meditation, contemplation and prayers.

For more than two centuries after Christ, early Christians endured persecution under the Roman Empire. That suffering came to an end in the year 313, when Emperor Constantine legalized Christianity. This freedom allowed believers to travel to the Holy Land and pray at the places connected with Jesus' passion and death.

However, such journeys were costly, difficult, and often dangerous. Because many Christians could not make the pilgrimage, a desire grew—especially by the fifth century—to recreate the holy sites of Jesus' passion in other places. In this way, the faithful could make a spiritual pilgrimage without leaving home. Eventually, in 1731, Pope Clement XII permitted the Stations of the Cross to be erected in all churches and fixed their number at fourteen. Some devotional booklets also include a fifteenth station, celebrating the Resurrection of Jesus.

The Church attaches plenary indulgence to the devout praying of the Stations of the Cross. While our sins may be forgiven through confession, their effects often remain. Before entering heaven, the soul must be fully purified. This purification—called temporal punishment—takes place either in this life or in purgatory. A plenary indulgence removes all such temporal punishment.

To gain this indulgence, one must be completely detached from sin, even venial sin, and fulfill three conditions: sacramental confession, reception of Holy Communion, and prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father. These conditions may be completed several days before or after praying the Stations, though it is recommended that Communion and prayers for the Pope be offered on the same day.

The Stations of the Cross usually take only about thirty minutes (Fridays 4:30pm). What an extraordinary gift the Church offers us to remove all remaining temporal punishment and prepare our souls for heaven. This indulgence may be applied either to ourselves or to someone who has died. Think about it: in just thirty minutes, offered with faith and love, you may help open the gates of heaven for a departed loved one.

YOUR SUPPORT MAKES A DIFFERENCE – THANK YOU!

When beginning our campaign, our goal was fill 50 envelopes to help support our spring Thursday dinners. Thanks to the incredible generosity and support from St. Joseph parishioners, all the envelopes have been filled. Thank you! If you have yet to return your envelope, it can be dropped off at the parish office or placed in the collection basket at Mass.

FAITH FORMATION

There will be no faith formation programming this week (Feb 18) so families may attend Ash Wednesday Mass.

STEUBENVILLE YOUTH CONFERENCE

There are only 14 spots left! The conference is open to students who are entering their freshman year of high school through recently graduated high school senior students who are interested in attending the conference should contact Tammy in the parish office. Think about bringing a friend!

We are still in need of at least two (2) male chaperones for the conference. Chaperones must be at least 21 years old and complete a diocesan required background check and safe environment training. Please contact Tammy in the Parish Center with questions, or if you are interested in filling this need.

SECURING SACRED SPACES

Churches, synagogues, and other houses of worship are places of peace—but they must also be places of protection. This workshop equips pastors, volunteers, and safety teams with the tools to recognize threats and reduce liability. Learn to spot pre-attack indicators, discuss emergency plans, and strengthen your faith community's safety culture.

What You'll Learn:

- Spot warning signs before violence occurs.
- Understand insurance gaps, liability, and use-of-force laws.
- Discuss emergency action plans (lockdown, evacuation, medical).
- Strengthen your team's confidence and coordination.
