One Day Pilgrimage to National Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help in Champion, WI | Wednesday, June 18

Hop on the coach bus as we head across the state for a guided tour of the Shrine and veneration of relics of St. Bernadette of Lourdes. This will be an all day trip, with no overnight. A boxed lunch will be provided. The cost is $57 per person (plus money for snacks/additional meals throughout the day). Please RSVP to Nicki Welsch.

ABOUT THE SHRINE: The shrine is built on "America's Marion Apparition Site", where in 2010 Bishop Ricken formally authenticated the 1859 appearances of the Blessed Mother to Adele Brise. Visit ChampionShrine.org for more information.

ABOUT ST. BERNADETTE: Bernadette experienced Marian apparitions in Lourdes, France between February 11 and July 16, 1858. In 1862 the apparitions were authenticated and became known as Our Lady of Lourdes.

WHY DO WE HONOR RELICS? The veneration of relics is all about faith—we thank God for the faith of His saint, and as we reflect on and learn more about this saint's faith, we pray that God will renew and increase it in ourselves. Visit StBernadetteUSA.org for more on the saint and relics tour.

‘Who, What, Why, Where, When and How’

This concept of 5W’s and 1H is extensively used in journalism, especially while writing a factual news story. WHO is Jesus? WHAT did Jesus do? WHY did Jesus come? WHERE did Jesus come? WHEN did Jesus come to be? HOW did Jesus come?

Who is Jesus?

St. John presents Jesus as ‘the Savior of the World’: “... for I do not come to condemn the world, but to save the world” (Jn 12:47b). Have I accepted Jesus as the Savior of my life? Do I grow in my conviction that the “WHO” of Jesus primarily consists in Him wanting to save me from my sin, and wanting me to lead a holy and sanctified life, so that I can belong to Him completely?

What did Jesus do?

St. John presents Jesus as ‘speaking the Word of Life’: “Whoever rejects me and does not accept my words has something to judge him: the word that I spoke, it will condemn him...” (Jn 12:48). That is why St. Peter confessed to Jesus, “Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life” (Jn 6:68). Am I keen in listening to the words of Jesus, that He speaks to me, especially through His Holy Word in the Bible? Do I seek to live and base my life on these Words and teachings that the Lord speaks to me?

Why did Jesus come?

St. John presents Jesus coming ‘to lead from the darkness of death to the light of eternal life’: “I came...so that everyone who believes in me, might not remain in darkness. ...I know that his commandment is eternal life” (Jn12:46, 50). Am I fixated in the mundane pleasures and transitory luxuries of the world, giving no heed to the spiritual side of my life? Do I orient my life towards the higher aspects of life, gazing heavenward, and preparing my spiritual life to be worthy of eternal life?

Where did Jesus come?

St. John presents Jesus as ‘coming to this world’: “I have come into the world...” (Jn 12:46). Do I make space for Jesus to enter into my world, even if I am aware that I am sinful or prone to bad habits or constantly falling into failures? Am I willing to accept the transformations that will be demanded of me when Jesus descends into the realms of my life, and exhorts me to be walking with Him on His way of the Cross?

When did Jesus come to be?

St. John presents Jesus as ‘existing with the Father, from eternity’: “...and whoever sees me, sees the one who sent me. So what I say, I say as the father told me” (Jn 12:45, 50b). Jesus, the Son, is the visible image of God, the Father. Do I possess the faith to be firm in my trust in the Holy Providence, knowing that Jesus knows everything, especially in my moments of hardships and trials?

How did Jesus come?

St. John presents Jesus as ‘coming as the light to the world’: “I come into the world as light...” (Jn 12:46). Jesus came to the darkness of our world, by being the Light. Am I firm in my principles and values to hold on to the teachings and commandments that the Lord, lovingly invites me to live? Am I courageous to be the shining light even when many forces of darkness around me try to put off this holy radiance of the Lord?
