The Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary | Sacred Art

By studying Sacred Art, we fuel our prayer and contemplation. In this episode, Dr. Ben Akers sits down with Taylor Kemp to examine the theological nuances contained in Bartolome Murillo's depiction of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Mother Teresa: No Greater Love

Mother Teresa: No Greater Love is a soaring tribute to a spiritual icon, a powerful witness of authentic Christian charity, and a guidepost for all who seek hope in our turbulent times: Mother Teresa of Calcutta. This film reveals not just who Mother Teresa was, but how her singular vision to serve Christ in the poor continues to be realized through the Missionaries of Charity today.

Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary

In this episode, Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. John Sehorn discuss the birthday of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Parish Council of Catholic Women (PCCW)

St Joe's PCCW August meeting was on Thursday, August 24. First, we met at Options for Women located at 544 Broadway St. S. #404, Menomonie where we were greeted by a staff member who gave us a tour and answered all our questions. Bill Hartung then showed us where the future ultrasound room is being renovated and should be ready and operable by November. We are very lucky to have this non-profit organization in our community dedicated to providing families and pregnant women with truthful information, as well as restorative, mental, physical, emotional and material help. We then traveled back to St. Joe's to discuss upcoming events and approved next year's budget.

Events for September & October:

*Parish Festival - Sept. 17

*Fall Deanery Meeting - Sept. 26 St. Joe's will be hosting this meeting. More information in next week's bulletin.

*October General Meeting - Oct. 19

*Fall Thrift Sale - Oct. 12 & 13

*Group 2 serves the month of September (Boecker - Diits)

Caller: Karen Brunner

*Group 3 serves the month of October (Doane - Gondeck) Caller: Cyrilla Face

May our patron saint, Our Lady of Good Counsel, continue to guide our organization.

Blessings to you all,

Karen Brunner, PCCW President

Eucharistic Miracle of WEITEN-RAXENDORF

AUSTRIA, 1411

In fifteenth-century Austria there were a number of thefts of consecrated Hosts, so Church authorities took to keeping the Hosts in the sacristy. Despite these precautions, a thief succeeded in 1411 in stealing a consecrated Host from the parish church in Weiten. The Host slipped unnoticed to the ground during his journey and was discovered several days later by a pious woman. The Host glowed brilliantly, divided in two pieces but united by threads of bleeding flesh.

Weiten's parish church

In the parish church of Weiten, a thief broke into the sacristy and got hold of a consecrated Host that he slipped into one of his gloves. According to reports from the village of Weiten, the theft occurred in 1411. The thief then mounted his horse intending to make for the nearby village of Spitz. Instead of taking the road main, he chose a lateral one that passes through the valley of Mühlendorf and is known as "Am Schuß." When he arrived at the spot that today is marked by a chapel in honor of the miracle, his horse halted and would not move no matter how much the man beat him. Some laborers working in the surrounding fields came to help. But there was no way to make the horse move; it stood still as a statue. Then without warning, the animal leaped to a gallop, and the Host hidden in the rider's glove dropped to the ground without anybody noticing.

A few days later, a Mrs. Scheck from Mannersdorf passed by the spot and saw the Host encircled in a strong light. In great wonder, she picked it up and noticed that the consecrated Host was broken in two parts but remained joined together by threads of bleeding flesh. The woman was greatly moved, and at her own expense built a small chapel in thanksgiving on the spot. As news of the miracle spread, many pilgrims came to the place. Later it was necessary to build a bigger church to contain the great crowds that came every year in pilgrimage in order to honor the precious reliquary.

WEEKLY REFLECTION BY FR. MANO

Jesus during His ministry on the earth worked always with one kind of a sinner or another. And it's amazing to see the way He treated them all. Sinners were considered with respect and dignity. He often forgave peoples' sins as He healed their physical illness. He loved them so much that He wanted them to be always released from the clutches and slavery to Satan. But He hates sin. He hates sin with a great passion and rebuked it whenever He could.

This sin of Hypocrisy was one of the sins to which He had the most hatred. The English word, 'hypocrite', comes from the Greek word, 'hypocresis' which is the Greek word for 'actor'. A good hypocrite is a good actor. Jesus today vehemently and quite heatedly labels the Pharisees and the Teachers of the Law as 'Hypocrites'. We need to ask ourselves: Have I become a prey to this deadly and poisonous Sin? I am hypocritical when I profess to be a Christian but don't even seek to live the Gospel values in my life. I am hypocritical when I say I love God above all but don't have time for weekend Mass and don't find even few moments to be with Him in prayer. I am hypocritical when I say I love others but constantly hurt them with my words and fail to appreciate them and even fail to pray for them. I am hypocritical when I receive the Eucharist but fail to even try to give my life in service for others. I am hypocritical when I recite many prayers but do not seek to listen or do God's Will in my life. I am hypocritical when I am a Church member but have failed to even try to learn and follow the commands and regulations of the Church!

The habit of hypocrisy is a lethal one. Have I become a victim to this noxious and fatal habit? Sin is to be thrown away but the sinner is given a chance to repent. The Pharisee is not hated but Pharisaiism is condemned. We might say that 'All this demand of the Lord seems all too difficult for me, who at all can live in perfection? Is there any person who can claim not be living in duplicity?'

What's impossible for humans is possible for God. What is needed is a genuine attempt at perfection, a true longing to be free from duplicity and a solid motivation to live a harmonious life. With deep love, He encourages and motivates us through St Paul and his companions: "We constantly pray for you; may our God make you worthy of His calling. May He, by his power, fulfill your good purposes and your work prompted by faith." (2 Thess 1:11-12) Let us do away with the Habit of Hypocrisy and genuinely seek to grow in authenticity, genuineness and faithfulness.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

A note from Deone Parnell,
Director of Religious Education:

I am looking forward to meeting all the families at St. Joseph! Thank you so much to everyone who reached out and shared insight and ideas. I am praying for guidance on how to best serve our parish with a goal of ensuring that each family always feels welcomed and supported on their faith journey. Understanding that every young person is a unique, unrepeatable, beloved child of God, I hope to build on our amazing programs while adding opportunities for our youth to experience a personal Pentecost!

I will be in touch to make sure everything is scheduled for an awesome year! In the interim if you have any questions, or are interested in getting involved in Religious Education, I would love to hear from you! You can reach me at the church office 715-232-4920, cell 715-977-2493 or email at Deone.Parnell@MenomonieCatholic.org.
